

Protect Your License and Your Career: What Every PA and Supervising Physician Should Know About the Law

CALIFORNIA ACADEMY OF
PHYSICIAN ASSISTANTS

California Physician Assistant's and Supervising Physician's Legal Handbook

Author: CAPA Legal Counsel,
Michael Scarano, Jr., Esq.

At CAPA's request, Michael Scarano, Jr., Esq. has authored this first edition of our California Physician Assistant's and Supervising Physician's Legal Handbook. It answers scores of questions in a concise, clear fashion, with citations and appendices that will permit practitioners to read the operative statutes and regulations for themselves. A must have for all California practices employing PAs.

Audio CDs
(MP3 or Regular Audio)

This is an excellent companion piece with the California Physician Assistant's and Supervising Physician's Legal Handbook. The Q & A sessions contained on the CDs alone are worth the purchase price. Mike's presentation style is warm, friendly and easy to listen to. To make this an even bigger win-win endeavor – all of CAPA's net proceeds from the sale of the CDs will go to CAPA's Political Action Committee (PAC ID #981553).
